THE ELECTIONS.

The response which has been felt as to the date of the elections for the Ontario Legislature, has been relieved by the official announcement that the Legislature has been dissolved, and that the elections will take place on Tuesday, June 10th, and the polling one week later.

The time allowed for the contest is short, but so much the better, as there will be less determination of business, and the time is suitable for the voters.

It is incumbent on our friends to get their candidates into the field at the earliest practicable date, and with exertions the day will improve. It is expected that the election of 1890, and all in the overthrow of the Mowat dynasty, which seems to be assured.

During the week ending May 15th there were 5,500 bushels of wheat exported.

There were about 500 head of cattle, 400 head of calves, and 100 head of sheep offered at the market at 10 o'clock.

First prices were about 4 1/2¢ per pound, pretty good stock at about 3 1/2¢, and fat stock at about 3 1/2¢.

There seems to be considerable inquiry for thirty head of young cattle and stock to put on grass for 10 to 15¢ per head. There were also a few calves offered. Bulls were rather plentiful to-day, and some were rather fine animals, while others were rather hard-looking. Prices ranged from a little over 3¢ per pound up to 4 1/2¢.

There was a fair demand for calves at prices ranging from $2 to $5 each.

Sheep that have been sold at all from 3 to 4¢ per pound, and spring lambs at from $2 to $4 per head.

For hogs are rather scarce and higher in price, fed hogs selling at about 5¢ per pound, and those just come off the ears up to 5 1/2¢ per pound.

BELEVEILLE, THURSDAY MAY 17.

A PRUTHINNT QUESTION.

In discussing the position of Mr. Hudson as to East Hastings, the Kingston News makes the following statement:

"He is thoroughly identified with the interests of the farmers of East Hastings, we feel to see what the Farmers could gain by displacing him. Are they opposed to the Municipal administration?"

Do they want a man who can be relied upon to defend the interests of the mill owners at Toronto, regardless of party? They have him now. Nothing can be more absurd than that determination to nominate anywhere only a Farmer and their relatives to admit to membership among them any man connected with either of the regular parties. Such a course, if they would obtain universal success, would obliterate the whole of the present Legislature. Could they carry on the Government of the Province without an atom of legislative experience?"

A SIGNIFICANT COMPARISON.

The following comparison of prices between 1870 and 1890, will give the Canadian farmers an idea how the industry has developed and prices reduced, under our moderate system of protection:

BELLEVILLE, FRIDAY MAY 18
CHARGES AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT.

Campbell, May 18.—That Mr. Dryden allowed all at all to be taken from the agricultural farm, that Mr. Dryden allowed the sale of Central prize produce, to which he was not lawfully entitled.

That Mr. Dryden advised Mr. Grady to give false evidence before a public accounts committee.

That certain alterations were effected in domestic regulations in Peterborough, with the connivance of the registrar.

That Mr. Arvey sought to deprive the House in regard to Mr. Grady's offer to again give evidence.

That, by the way, what are the other charges?

To which an exchange replies: It is easy to say that certain statements are lies. It is less easy to prove them. Official records show that cattle were imported for the agricultural farm at Guelph which developed tuberculosis; that those cattle were placed near other, and that the others contracted the disease; that calves which had otherwise been exposed, were offered for sale; and that at least one of them were found to be diseased after the sale.

It is a matter of record that a contractor purchased brick from the officials of the Central prison without the agency of any middleman or broker; and that Scully was paid a commission on the price of the brick he did not sell.

It is a matter of record that Mr. Strahan advised Mr. Grady not to give testimony calculated to incriminate Mr. Dryden, and that Mr. Strahan, a member of the Government, counselled Mr. Grady for being willing to answer questions that he "had no objection to being concerned so far as Mr. Strahan was concerned."

Documents registered at Peterborough were altered after they were registered. We cannot say whether the act was criminal or not.

Mr. Arvey did not desire the house in respect to Mr. Grady's desire to again give evidence. The Globe's own editorial statement shows that Mr. Arvey said he received the telegraphic despatch on Wednesday, the last day on which the committee sat, when in fact he was not in the city, which was not the last day on which the committee sat.

As to the other charges, they are no more than what it is impossible even to give a list of them here. But let us content ourselves with a single addition to the Globe's list to day.

The Ontario Government gave a monopoly in school books to certain favored publishers. No other books were permitted in the public schools of the province—no other publishers are permitted to print the authorized books, and parents are compelled to buy books from the monopolists.

The Government permits the monopolists to charge a certain scale of prices. The Government publishes have offered to do the work at one half those prices. There is an average attendance of 250,000 pupils at the public schools of the province. The expenditure for books on account of this monopoly is about $2 annually, or $600,000 for all. One half of this is plunder—money stolen from the public for the benefit of the monopoly created by Sir Oliver Mowat. The monopoly for ten years, representing robberies from the people of $2,500,000.

World's Columbian Exposition Will be of value to the world by illustrating the improvements in the mechanical arts and eminent physicians will tell you that the progress in medical science has been of great importance, and as a strengthening laxative that Syrup of Figs is far in advance of all others.

The Last Hope of the Condemned Williams Murderer.

On the 14th inst. T. C. Robinette filed his reasons for a new trial on behalf of William Williams, who was convicted of the murder of William Williams, in the Court of Queen's Bench, on the 14th inst.

That a necessary and material witness, named Harry Ryan, on behalf of the crown, could not be found at the time of the trial, but has now appeared in case a new trial is granted.

That the learned judge erred in his statement of law to the jury that the post office evidence in case a new trial is granted, would not be sufficient to establish the innocence of the accused.

CAIRING FOR THE POOR.

By a canon of the church all babies were formerly required to keep alms.

One charitable society in London has thirty-eight offices where inquiry is made into all cases of distress.

The great almsman of 1790, the first of the kind in the kingdom, Queen Victoria's almsman, the dean of Winchester, distributed alms in the name of the poor on Monday, Thursday and Friday.

The Lazarus, a religious benevolent order, received their news from their first office in the city of London, St. James's, in Paris.

The London Hospital for the aged and infirm support their inmates at an average expenditure of fifteen cents a day.

One of the largest hospitals in the world is the Materfamilia of St. James's. It receives annually over thirteen thousand patients.

The value of property held for charitable purposes in England was fifty-one million pounds in 1890, an average of two pounds to each inhabitant.

LITERARY REVIEWS. Japan has 700 newspapers and magazines and produces annually 18,000 books, or books.

Ex-President James McKim, of Princeton, has completed the manuscript of his own biography. It will be published in the near future.

The statement that Mr. Marlow Crawford is a most popular American novelist is confirmed by the report that he receives the sum of $10,000 on the publication of each of his novels.

Switzerland, the poet, and Theodore Watts, the painter, were together in an English manor house. The poet is said to have gone so deaf that he became an ordinary conversation with great difficulty.

The biography of Abraham Lincoln, written by President Garfield, was at the time of his death, the United States at the time of his death, the United States at the time of his death.

Of Prof. Drummond's "The Greatest Thing in the World," 312,000 copies have been sold in the United States and Canada. The "Spiritual World," 114,000, and his "Tropical Africa," 25,000, and his "Baxter's Second Lesson," 30,000.

The popularity of novels is probably never so great as in Australia. It is said that nearly 90 per cent. of the male population of the public libraries read novels almost exclusively.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS. A piece of charcoal put into the pot when cooking cabbage will prevent all offensive smell.

A small teaspoonful of powdered borax added to a bowl of cold starch will give more stiffness to linen than any of the common things that have been used.

More tablespoons of borax to a pan of hot soap suds, pour your table linen in and let it stand for two hours, rinse it with clear water and polish with a soft cloth.

Lemonade, says the doctor, is best when made of boiling water, covered up closely and allowed to stand for a few hours. It is more refreshing and does not so much spoil the stomach as lemonade made of cold water.

A new method of cleaning clothes is suggested. Put the clothes in the yolk of an egg, so that the egg will be in the water. Allow it to dry and then use. This treatment, it is said, is the best for making the laundry especially effective.

The Princess of Wales has an accommodation which has commanded her royal favor. She is an excellent housekeeper and her mother's right hand in the management of her household.

There is at Perth, in Scotland, an old woman who "Bakes tea to Bellingham." The Queen's in a much more literal sense than those dignified words usually have. She is an excellent housekeeper and her mother's right hand in the management of her household.

"Did you notice how our new boarder is always looking at the lady's and her child?" said the landlady's daughter to her mother. "Yes, I noticed how he winks at us when we are cutting the pie. He is hinting for a kiss."

A Notable Epitaph. It is related that a chronic coffee-seeker died a few years ago, and his friends asked the sexton to inscribe an epitaph for his tombstone. The sexton suggested the following, which was not, however, adopted: "Here lies John Smith, who died of coffee, and who was the only place for which he never applied."

How to Spend Time. Learn how to probably spend your leisure time. It is a good idea to have a book in your pocket. It is a good idea to have a book in your pocket. It is a good idea to have a book in your pocket.

London, May 18.—George Griffiths, who started from London on a morning of March 10, to circumnavigate the world and who was reported to be in "Nelly Bay," of New York, has arrived here, having accomplished his feat in 64 days, 11 hours and 50 minutes. Griffiths applied to cover the distance in 60 days.

Earthquake in Scotland. London, May 18.—Slight shock of earthquake were experienced in the district around and around the city of London yesterday.

A Man Made Happy

Belleville, Ont., May 18, 1894.

For the first time in my life, I feel as if I am a man made happy. I have been suffering from constipation and sick headache for many years, and I have tried every remedy I could find, but nothing has done me any good. I have been so weak and so nervous, that I have been unable to do any work, and I have been so miserable, that I have been unable to enjoy my life. I have been so miserable, that I have been unable to enjoy my life. I have been so miserable, that I have been unable to enjoy my life.

CITY AND DISTRICT.

Now the lumbermen will rejoice.

Henry Lindsay is doing the northern circuit.

Devotes of today can find many treasures in the fields and woods around the city.

The Belleville Record reports that the city is at this time in the outskirts of that town.

Some women's bonnets nowadays are so ridiculous in design that they approach the vanishing point.

The Ella Ross will run a cheap excursion on the 24th, leaving Belleville at 3 p. m., and returning at 7 p. m.

Fortnightly no had off from among Pheno-Caffin for headache, neuralgia, or pain. See, all druggists.

The programme for the reception of His Excellency the Governor-General will be found in our advertising columns.

Mr. Jao. T. Warrington shipped 3,000 boxes of shoes on Saturday—two cars from Montreal, and the balance from here.

Pheno-Caffin gives immediate relief from headache, neuralgia, neuralgia, rheumatic pain, etc. See. All druggists.

Remember the Sir. Hero's 50c. excursion to Plover and Kingston, 24th May, leaving at 6:30 a. m. Home by search light, 10:10 a. m.

A large bill was broken from a shade tree at the corner of Bridge St. and Victoria St. by the wind yesterday morning.

Charles Olow, of Gananoque, aged 23, was killed a short distance from the city on Friday night by jumping from a train.

Rheumatism rocks the system like a thunder-bolt. It is a cruel and powerful power of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies the blood.

Remember the celebration on the 24th of May in Kingston and Plover and don't forget the Sir. Hero's 50c. excursion at 6:30 a. m. Home by search light, 10:10 a. m.

John Kidding, John Dunn and Jas. G. O'Leary, 500 men, of the 1st and 2nd regiments from the hold of the ship, Plover on Saturday. This is the record for this port.

The R. & O. Navigation Company has decided to run the steamer Magnet to St. Catharines in future, and she will sail from Montreal Fridays instead of Saturdays, as formerly.

For "Canada" it is now ready. It is even better than part I. Do not fail to see it. It can be seen at the office of the Intelligencer office with 10c. Copies of part I may be procured in the same way.

R. Wadsworth, of Trenton, reported to the police yesterday afternoon that he had following his team, and as he was leaving the city, he did not want to take it with him. It was put in the hands of the police and was shortly afterwards claimed by Mr. W. Johnson.

No one need play you if you find the excitement, without having tried Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, "the kind that cures" cough, cold, and all pulmonary diseases. Every bottle warranted. No city sales in the city. In big bottles, 50c and $1.00, at all druggists.

The Bridge St. S. S. primary class picnic, which was to have taken place to-morrow afternoon, will have to be postponed until the afternoon of the 24th, owing to the rain. Should that day not be favorable, the same will have the church picnic on Saturday, 24th, returning there at 3 p. m.

The Van facilities of the J. O. Ayer Co., of Lowell, Mass., enable them to place the Superior Blood Purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is a cure for the poorest of humors. It is not a cure for the poorest of humors. It is not a cure for the poorest of humors.

In all cases, where a mild but effective agent is needed, Ayer's Pills are the best. They improve the appetite, regulate healthy action, promote digestion, and regulate every function. No pill is in greater demand, or more highly recommended by the profession.

Grand Truck Matters.

Thirty-five men have been discharged from the Grand Truck shops here owing to the depression of the country's business and lack of freight. There are now only a few left at work, and as they are being paid out of the company's pocket, they are not likely to stay long.

The company has plenty of coal, but they are not likely to stay long. They are not likely to stay long.

ROBERT MACAIRE
A NOVEL
L'AUDEMENT ET LE DÉSADRE

My good friends, one day, I thank you, I have been so long a stranger to the sweet enchantment of the hospitality of our dear France that I did not realize at the first, the genuine and now of your welcome. Let me now alone. Let me not on record any more the opinion that the jewel which I sought in vain in the court of France and amidst the nobles of Europe I have found here embodied in this lovely casket of nature's own device. But enough of this. The wayward stranger, thank you from the bottom of his weary heart. My friends, I did not seek to know your affairs, I did not even know your name. I am content to receive you as you are, without guarantee of any sort or kind. You are honest, like myself. You are perhaps, some of you, in trouble and have suffered even as I have myself. You seek no questions. I ask no questions. We are from different friends, and as such I mingle with your friendly and cordial interest. I am a simple citizen of Charmont-sur-Pont.

No better insurance could be given of the absolute genuineness of these simple folk than the fact that they received in faith and with grateful the appalling pieces of sheer impudence. They all made low bows or courtesies and returned their hearts and on their countenances. Presently he said: "The night comes on, and I must stay somewhere. You mentioned the name, I think, of my memory served me right, your name, from whom house you thought it well that I should rest. He here, or shall some of you conduct me to this?"

This speech settled the matter. Not only had he deftly quartered himself in the most desirable place in the village and by the public desire, but to him in an indirect way by reviewing the matter of the accommodation himself, he gave a gentle proof of their tardiness. How could any one after this venture to ask him any questions, although any were burning with curiosity to know something of him? As yet they did not know even his name.

So it was that the stranger became installed in the best house in the village on an honored guest. Pierre Beaumont, made much of him, concluding for his benefit the best wine he had, while his wife and their daughter—an only child now, for the boy and girl who had preceded her had both died young—prepared a tasty supper and spread for him bed their first night.

The supper and the wine, especially the latter, seemed to thaw the stranger's reserve, for without being asked he told them his name, doing it in such a manner that he seemed to be conferring a favor.

"You will doubtless, my good friends, like to know my name. Well, a name, no matter who he may be, must not be a child to those who have taken him to their hearts."

Here Marie blushed and turned away her head.

"You may call me—remember that I say it truly—you may call me Robert!"

"Robert what or Robert who?" asked the farmer.
